

Our Mission

To create a more humane future by teaching responsible and loving animal care and promoting respect and compassion for all living creatures in the hearts and minds of all in our community.

Animal Abuse/Cruelty

Humane police officers investigate cases relating to animals who are victims of cruelty, neglect, dog fighting, abandonment and other mistreatment.

If you see an animal at risk it is important that you act. The animals can not speak for themselves and depend on you!

Officers address illegal situations. Even if you would not care for an animal the way someone else does, if they are not breaking the law, not much can be done.

How to Report

Learn the laws and how to file a concern, by visiting www.humaneanimalallies.org.

Who we are

Humane Animal Allies is dedicated to humane treatment of animals in Armstrong County.

What we do

SUPPORTS local humane officers by providing supplies, equipment, and training for Armstrong County's unpaid, volunteer humane officers. Both officers pay for all expenses out of their own pockets. HAA will raise funds for materials, equipment, and training for these officers.

EDUCATES the public on humane care and PA laws on calls and through programs to schools and community organizations

PARTNERS with shelters, rescues, veterinarians and law enforcement to achieve the impossible.

BUCKET LIST We dream of reducing the many feral felines in the area. We also want to create a program to provide a safe place for animals of domestic violence to allow victims of abuse to escape dangerous situations.

Educates

On average, 80 percent of HPO calls is educating people on caring for animals and complying with Pennsylvania laws.

Both officers present programs to schools, community groups and others about their work and caring for animals.

Humane police trick dog, Charlotte the Bold, accompanies HPO O'Donnell on presentations as requested.

Partners

Partnerships are a big part of HAA's mission. The more allies we have, the more of a difference we can make. Together we achieve -- literally -- the impossible.

The HPOs assist police officers and State Troopers; work with shelters and rescues on large-scale cases, partner with veterinarians on medical situations. Armstrong County District Attorney Katie Charlton's office also supports the program.

The officers also partner with community service organizations to improve living conditions for those struggling to care for their animals.
